

30th January, 2006

Dear madam Yaa Asantewa,

I am much grateful for your generosity in sponsoring me in my education. I am writing this letter to show my appreciation to what you've been doing ~~to~~ for me in my education. I really appreciate it very much and a few people in this world can do what you are doing for me.

~~What~~ May the good Lord richly bless you in whatever job you are doing and everything you touch ~~to~~ shall prosper and earn more than you are earning.

I also thank God for giving me such a wonderful, generous and also beautiful person though I've never seen your picture besides the world needs people like you for improvement and I don't know how to I can thank you but I'm ~~saying~~ ^{wishing} you a long prosperous life but I think I will leave it in the Lord's hands to reward because the gift of God is eternal life.

I think I would like end here because if I said I'm to go on I don't know where I will end at I hope to see you in the future. Please don't be offended that I called you Madam is just that I don't know the correct spelling of your name and I don't want to abuse your name. Thank you

Lily Mills.